Paris Landing State Resort Park has become the resort of choice for families and businesses seeking quality lodging, dining, and a variety of activities set in a natural atmosphere. The park's 841 acres are nestled along the Tennessee River's western banks providing a scenic natural area for many recreational activities.

Since 1995, Paris Landing State Resort Park Golf Course has been awarded a four-star ranking by Golf Digest magazine. Paris Landing is an excellent location for various water-related activities such as fishing, skiing, personal watercraft use, sail boating and more.

Paris Landing is located 18 miles northeast of the city of Paris on the Henry-Stewart County line. U.S. Highway 79 bisects the park. From the west, take U.S. 79 east to the park entrance. From the east take I-24 west to Exit 4. Go west on Highway 79, go 45 miles to the park entrance.
